PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
Harney, Hughes & Co.,
EAST SIDE OF THIRD STREET,
BETWEEN MARKET AND JEFFERSON.

FRIDAY..... NOV. 19, 1858.

"MUCH to the sorrow of the "locals," our city is unusually quiet. It has been coming to us for some time. An accident is now never far off. A dark dog fight would be something of interest; but no, there is not even this help us out. These are the feelings of our city after his return from the point in search of a stay item of news. It was rumored that he was.

FEARFUL FIGHT—TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER—THREE KILLED AND TWO WOUNDED—NO ARRESTS.—It was with palpitation of heart, and a seething nose that our reporter hears of this terrible affray; but nothing daunted, he casts his hat over his eyes and marches to the scene to give the news to his readers. The following, as near as can be collected, are the facts: A gentleman living in the upper portion of the city, having of late missed a great quantity of cheese from his larder, and being unable to catch the thief or thieves, resolved to set a trap for them, which were killed by the dog, two wounded; and this is the disastrous fight our reporter walked ten squares to learn the particulars of.

THEATER.—THIS evening the sisters Western take their farewell benefit, and make their last appearance. We think they might have put up a more attractive bill; but they know best. They will repeat again, and for the "last time," the Three Fast Men. As the place is long, there will be no other performed. These young ladies have made many friends and gained many admirers during their engagement, all of whom should be present to night. Give them a good

GERMAN THEATER.—THIS evening, at Mozart Hall, Mr. R. S. Wolf will take a benefit, tendered to him as a compliment. He has gathered around him a very superior company, and our German friends owe it to their districts to be amused and entertained, to support him. We have no doubt they will crowd the house. Many of our English readers, too, will be present. The bill is a good one, including "The Seven Female Soldiers," and "Master and Servant."

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—Mrs. Susan McClellan, relic of Hon. Wm. McClellan, and mother of Rev. John A. McClellan, and the celebrated Col. McClellan, of Mississippi, died in Mayville on the 21 inst. She was the daughter of Col. Thomas Marshall, of revolutionary memory, and a sister of the distinguished John Marshall, Chief Justice of the United States.

RAILROAD BARBECUE.—We acknowledge an invitation to attend the barbecue, which will be given on the 23d inst., at Maufordville, to celebrate the completion of the Nashville road to that point. The occasion will be one of great interest, and Louisville should be well represented.

If any of our readers want clocks or watches or jewelry, they cannot do better than buy of Vogt & Klink, on Third street, near Market. Their stock is large, varied, and of very superior workmanship—tasteful in design and excellent in finish.

LUGGAGE.—A great many in our city have head of Charley's Exchange, on Fifth street, between Market and Main, where luggage is served up every day at half-past ten o'clock; but there are also a great many who are not aware that it is a common thing to have roses, violets, and the like, every day; not once in a while, but every day. Remember, everyday at half-past ten o'clock, on Fifth street, between Market and Main.

THE MAMMOTH BOY.—This wonder of nature, will be on exhibition this morning, at the new rooms opened for the accommodation of the giantess, on the north side of Market street, three or four doors west of Brook. This boy, Master Simms, is a native of Kentucky, only three and a half years old and weighs 125 pounds. The giantess also holds her levees at the same place.

NO MORE FEVER AND AGUE.—Don't fail to read the advertisement in this morning's paper of Dr. L. H. Lines, of New York. His Ague Pills are a sure and effectual cure for all forms of chills and fevers. Persons troubled with this disease will do well to go at once to the drug store of J. S. Morris & Sons, Main street, and get a box. They are the exclusive agents for their sale.

BENEFIT OF BILLY BIRCH.—Masonic Temple was pretty well filled last evening, and the various parishes of the programme gave all great pleasure. This evening Billy Birch, the humorist, the laugh-provoking Billie, will take a benefit, offering a fine bill, and we shall expect to see the hall crowded to its utmost capacity.

AT COUR.—We call the attention of dealers in dry goods, notions, &c., to the advertisement of S. Ulman & Co. in our paper this morning. They offer their entire stock at cost for cash, and we have every reason to believe they will do as they say. Dealers would do well to call and examine the stock, if no more.

News Items.

EXTRAORDINARY CASE.—A short time since, a farmer, who resides about eight miles from Hamilton, Canada West, visited that city on business, and while there, met with an accident which caused the dislocation of the vertebrae of his neck. The unfortunate man is now lying an utterly helpless condition, being unable to move his arms or legs, or perform any of his natural functions; in a word, he is a living dead, but a dead body.

MISSES LUCILLE & FANNY.—We understand that a legal gentleman of the city received a letter a day or two ago from the daughter of the "Fifth Avenue actress," authorizing him to commence suits for libel against the entire press of the city, for the criticism upon her dramatic murders, during her recent engagement at the National Theater.—Cincinnati Gazette, 17th.

We have had no opportunity of hearing Mrs. McMahons, but if she is as crazy as the above paragraph represents her husband to be, she should be sent to the insane asylum, and her husband with her.

TRIFLES IN THE STATION HOUSE.—A KENTUCKY WOMAN AND HER FAMILY.—A woman who has been living in Hancock County, Kentucky, who removed to this city about three months ago, made application at the Nine Streets station house for a divorce, for herself and food for herself and little ones. Holding on to her dress were two little girls, aged about six and eight years, and in a little wagon were two boys and a girl, who were triplets. They were all dressed in rags, and the baby was fat, rosy-cheeked, bright-eyed little fellow, the pictures of health and good nature.

The woman stated that her husband had been dead about six months, and that she had married to keep her family together, with the exception of one little boy, who was converted into a much superior boy; a sum of about $500,000, but the husband had left her, and she had never missed her, her heart out of time during the seven trips down, and she had been married to last spring. We believe that he is ungrateful in the extreme, and deserves to be punished.

The Cincinnati Gazette, of yesterday, says:

MISS CASSON CLEARED FOR ST. LOUIS.—The Casson case is still under investigation by the police, who have little hope of finding out what caused the accident which caused the death of the Cassons.

MATTHEW LOOKING UP.—One of the best signs that the panic is over, and the public confidence returning, is the fact, that marriages are on the increase. Every day a large list is announced in the daily papers; while at the same time last year, scarcely one was to be found from the commencement of the year.

J. M. is engaged, the great clothier, has contributed as much to any other individual in this section in bringing about this very happy result. His styles of clothing are so very elegant, that it is next to an impossibility for a gentleman to appear on the street in anything without attracting the attention of every lady he meets. His store is on the corner of Fourth and Main streets, opposite the National Hotel.

FOR THE LADIES.—GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.—The attention of buyers is respectfully invited to my large and varied assortment of fancy silks of every description.
